1 The main file containing the bye-laws referred to in items no 1, 3 and 4 has been separately dealt with, and it was sent to the DP. H for remarks

2 The bye-laws placed below relate to the numbering and registration of vehicles which are framed under Section 48 (1)(J) of the Mysore Town Municipalities Act, 1933. The required formalities have also been observed

3 The bye-laws in question are more or less on the lines of those that are already in force in the other Municipalities in the State

4 In bye-law no 1, the time fixed for getting the Vehicles registered may be raised to 31 days instead of 15 days as in the case of the Gubbi Town Mysore

1) In bye-law no 3, it is provided that the owners of the vehicles should get the discs or numbering at their own cost and this does not appear to be reasonable for the other Municipalities, such discs will generally be provided by the Municipalities, and therefore the last sentence in this bye-law may be omitted.

6) With these modifications, the bye-laws in question may be approved
